THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Lieutenant General Samuel V. Wilson, USA
Director
Defense Intelligence Agency
The Pentagon
Washington, D. C. 20301

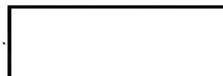

Dear Sam:

Thank you for your letter concerning my new appointment. I see a certain number of problems ahead in a job that will be a difficult and demanding one, but I see an equal number of opportunities and I look forward to the task.

One of the reasons for my upbeat feeling about all this is my strong belief in people like you who are in such key positions around the Intelligence Community. Working with you will be a joy and concerting our organizations in the national interest can bring a new era to the entire Intelligence Community. Certainly I look forward to the closest personal and institutional ties with you and your organization.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
